Omaha Catholic School Consortium (OCSC) Tuition Assistance Process Flow

Objective: Embrace all families and organize a tuition solution that will work for every family. No family will be turned away for the inability to pay.

1. All families wanting to be considered for tuition assistance for children in grades K-8 must apply via the Children's Scholarship Fund (CSF) application process. Families wanting to be considered for preschool and preK tuition assistance need to contact the OCSC business office and provide their financial information.
2. If you are NOT currently receiving assistance from CSF, please use this link: <https://www.csfomaha.org/parents-family/new-applicants.html>. Even if you received OCSC assistance in the past, if you did not also receive CSF assistance, use this application.
3. If you are currently receiving CSF assistance, you must go through the requalification process each year to continue to receive your CSF award. Current CSF applicants can use this link to apply: <https://www.csfomaha.org/parents-family/currentfamilies.html>.
4. To also be considered for OCSC assistance, families must check the box "to be considered for OCSC aid".
5. CFS will announce their awards in early July and these awards will be immediately applied to family's accounts in FACTS.
6. Applications can be submitted starting February 14, 2022. The deadline for submission is May 6, 2022.
7. OCSC will grant tuition assistance to families who qualified for but did not receive CSF assistance. This amount will be 90% of the CSF amount.
8. All families receiving CSF or OCSC tuition assistance are required to set up an autopay account or make special arrangements with the OCSC Business Office. Failure to set up autopay or contact the OCSC Business Office to make other arrangements may result in assistance being withdrawn.
9. Families over income for CFS will be considered for OCSC Tuition Assistance if their family's situation has changed. This further consideration will require providing updated financial information to the OCSC Business Office.
10. Families that still need assistance can reach out for Latino Children's Scholarship Fund assistance.
11. As a final resort, families still needing assistance can contact the OCSC Business Office for final consideration.
12. Inner City Scholarship Funds will be awarded in October. These funds are only available for families with students attending Sts. Peter and Paul.

If you need assistance with the application process, you can contact your school or the Omaha Catholic School Consortium business office as listed below.
